Scottish Universities Physics Alliance PhD Studentships

The Scottish Universities Physics Alliance (SUPA) opens a single door into all Physics PhDs in Scotland. When you apply for a SUPA PhD Studentship, you will also be considered for all other funded places available in Physics departments in Scotland.

Applications should be made at <http://apply.supa.ac.uk> by 31st January 2015.

All Physics PhD students in Scotland are considered SUPA Graduate School students and are eligible to attend all educational and training activities.
