Departmental Health and Safety Bulletin

Fire Safety Coordinator and Fire Marshal Training

This is now on Myplace and is called Departmental Fire Safety Training.

All fire marshals and new marshals should complete the training and update their safety record on Spider-X (Departmental Fire Safety).

The departmental will be holding a fire drill during March but before that a Fire Marshal meeting will be held on the 5th March in JA824 at 1pm.
